CIV. ACT. NO. : 07-31-GMS

JURY TRIAL REQUESTED

MOTION FOR STAY OF PROCEEDINGS PENDING THE DISPOSITION OF MOTIONS

AND STAY OF CLAIMS AND/OR PARTIES.

(Pursuant to Fed.R.of Civ.Proc. Rules 62 (b) and (h).)

Comes now, Plaintiff, William Joseph Webb Jr. in presenting His Motion for Stay of Proceedings Pending the Disposition of Motions and Stay of Claims and/or Parties to be heard before the Honorable Court at its earliest convenience and in support thereof, the following cause is shown:

1. On September 17, 2007, Plaintiff had to be taken to Kent General Hospital with some type of illness due to the medical staff at D.C.C. refused to treat Plaintiff and waited until His temperature again reached a very high 104.8°.
2. On September 17, 2007, when Plaintiff was admitted into the hospital at D.C.C., D.O.C. Staff was to inventory and send Plaintiff's property to the Property Room at D.C.C., in which did not occur until September 22, 2007, which has resulted in all of Plaintiff's legal work including all but not limited to this subject matter, criminal cases under challenge, notes, books (Delaware Rules Ann. Vol. I & II 2001 ed., Federal Rules Ann. Lexis 2001 ed., Fed. R. of Civ. Jud. Proc. 2002 ed. West Law, Self-Help Litigation Man. 3d ed., Nolo Press How to Represent Yourself in Court 5th ed., 2 Georgetown Law Journals May 2001 & May 2006.), even envelopes of various sizes, valuable evidence to this litigation and finally Plaintiff's medical journal.

3. Plaintiff is requesting this stay so He can have a Motion to Compel filed, a Motion to Amend the Complaint due to the newest collection of medical denials and failure to diagnose that have occurred, and finally a Motion for Default judgment due to CMS' failure to make discovery.
4. Plaintiff is requesting this Motion in good faith.
5. A stay is necessary due to the outcome of the missing materials would prevent a fair trial, in which Plaintiff will kill if He does not receive one.
6. A great prejudice would occur in which would deny an American citizen guaranteed rights.
7. A stay is necessary where additional occurrences would fall under this case and have all incidents addressed at one time will not waste anyone's time including numerous cases to handle ongoing occurrences involving the same defendants.

RELIEF REQUESTED: That the Court issue an order staying the proceeding pending the outcome of pending motions being filed at the same time this Motion is, and stay of the claims and/or parties due to recent events.

Dated: October 16, 2007

Respectfully Submitted,
